A flagship children's home

Every child who has experienced trauma has unique strengths and challenges, our treatment plans are tailored to address the person's specific needs.

Springfield House School offers a relationally secure environment that supports young people with SEN to recognise and effectively reduce the risks and threats that they face. Our unrivalled care encourages young people to recognise and effectively reduce the risks they face through assessments, interventions and skills development in order to enhance outcomes and successful transitions to greater independence.

The support afforded to young people at Springfield House School is delivered by care, education and clinical professionals who work together to meet the holistic needs of individual children. Children benefit from a highly stimulating and well organised curriculum which is a main driver behind young people's learning success. Our team are passionate about their work and determined to ensure that children realise their full potential with pathways that tackle the difficult transitional journeys from childhood to adulthood.

Supporting behaviours of concern

We use approaches to understand a person's behaviour, rather than just describe it, recognising the possible impact of differences associated with SEN, and how these uniquely impact on the person. We aim to improve the person's experience and quality of life through use of pro-active approaches to support a feeling of well-being and to reduce the risk of an incident occurring. We have huge aspirations for the children we look after at Springfield House School, providing quality care and support so that young people can develop the skills they need to live independently and contribute positively to their local community.

The individuality that Springfield House School provides is showcased throughout the property, with a number of small and large communal living spaces that ensure enough space for eight young people and their care team. The entire environment is continually reviewed and managed safely, as per the specific needs of the cohort of young people residing in the home at any given time to enable positive approaches in creating an environment that develops excellent working relationships with young people.

The backbone of our success

Weekly MDT meetings form the backbone of our practice with colleagues from all three disciplines coming together to discuss each young person. The focus lies on what went well in the past week, where to improve, and the progress made in completing their recovery programme, finishing by formulating a robust plan for the upcoming week.

MDT meetings are chaired by the Lead Teacher and have an allocated slot for young people to present their views, ensuring they are a part of their recovery programme.

Springfield House School has dedicated clinical suite where all young people complete their 1:1 sessions with our employed Clinical Psychologists.
